Dear Pink Ribbon Walker,

Welcome to the fourth edition of the Kells Pink Ribbon Walk newsletter. Registrations are still pouring in so if you know of anyone who would be interested in taking part in the Walk, tell them to sign up as quickly as possible. There's still time! And if they go directly to the Chamber of Commerce office in Maudlin St, Kells (above the Library), they can sign up, pay their registration fee and pick up their pack all in one handy trip.

Don't forget to pick up your pack!

If you've haven't picked up your registration pack from Dunnes The Premier House in Cross St, Kells, we'd ask that you make arrangements to do so as soon as possible.

Teams

We've had a lot of team signing up this year and it's great to see so many of you getting friends, family and colleagues involved in the Walk with you. If you're walking as part of a team, we'd ask the team leader to contact us on info@pinkribbonwalk.ie to make sure we have a list of everyone on the team.

Volunteers

Putting on an event like the Pink Ribbon Walk is not possible without a lot of help. We're asking you all to put the word out – VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED! Anyone who's interested in volunteering on the day should contact us on info@pinkribbonwalk.ie or call 087 984 4724.

Pink Ribbon Walk in the news

You may have seen our fantastic Chairperson Penny McGowan being interviewed on The Morning Show with Martin King and Sybil Mulcahy on TV3.

She and Colette Magnone were great ambassadors for the Walk and a real reminder of why we're all taking part in the first place – to raise money for Action Breast Cancer so they can continue to provide essential services to people who have been affected by the disease.

Penny was also interviewed on LFMFM's Late Lunch recently with another inspirational breast cancer survivor, Geraldine Jennings. If you missed any of these items, you can find them all on the website – www.pinkribbonwalk.ie.

Once again, sincere thanks for your support.

Until next time!

Emer
